III. Procedure of Admission

- Separate lottery for each class (Bal Vatika-2, Bal Vatika -3, Class -1, Class -6 Boys and Class-6 Girls will be conducted.

- As per the lottery rank seats will be filled in the following order-

1. BHU employee ward will be admitted first. (Shortfall of seats, if any, will be transferred to external students following the reservation norms).

2. Open/ Unreserved seats (available to all applicants including SC, ST, OBC-NCL, EWS) will be filled.

3. Reserved Category seats will be filled following the cutoff lottery rank of last admission on open/unreserved seat.

4. Divyang (only Orthopedically Handicapped-OH) reservation is horizontal.

Note: SC/ST seats will be filled only after interchanging the seats as per the availibility of registered applicants i.e. vacant SC seats can be filled by ST applicants and vice-versa.

IV. The admission of selected candidates will be cancelled if any false/forged Information in Application Form is detected at any stage even after the e-lottery process is complete. Admission will also be cancelled if applicant does not produce the original certificates of the enclosures at the time of admission.

V. In any case candidate cannot change their category during the time of admission.

VI. The admission of the selected candidate will be cancelled if he/she fails to submit the fee on the given date and time interval, following which the next candidate from the waiting list will be admitted in at his/her place.

VII. Candidate from waiting list can't lay claim for admission. In case the seat remains vacant then the candidates from the waiting list will be given admission as per Serial Number of Lottery Rank.

VIII. The following methodology will be used in the process of drawing E-lottery for the selection of candidates:

1. A list of eligible candidates (different classes) for the lottery will be obtained from the agency which is involved in the uploading and other activities related to the submission of online applications.

2. A serial number (starting from 1 to number of applications) will be allotted by agency to each applicant as per the increasing order of date and time of submission of application.

3. In the process of E-lottery, the same list with the above order will be used.

4. A unique random number between zero to one will be generated from uniform distribution against each candidate in the list by the Random Number Generation Tool provided under the Data Analysis tab of Microsoft Excel.

5. In any random selection it is important to keep selection procedure in such a way that in future audit we can reproduce same result. This reproducibility is important feature of selection process and hence when random number table is used for same work, manually, it is mandatory to mention the random start point (page number of random number table and on that page the line number and column number of starting random point along with the movement direction for selection), so that one can verify selected units if need arises.

6. In MS-Excel this task is done by Random Seed feature. Therefore, lottery for each class a random seed will be set to generate random numbers. To keep it more open, seed numbers to generate numbers will be asked from the audience available at the time of the lottery. Under this process a large number of chits bearing random numbers will be kept in big bowl and a person from audience will be requested to draw a chit after mixing properly the chits in bowl. After picking the chit he will be requested to announce the number so that it can be used as random seed for a particular lottery process.

7. When the random number is generated as per the chosen random seed, the random numbers generated will be sorted in descending order treating the numbers as score. This sorted list will be treated as merit list. In this process tie of scores is rare phenomenon however, if it happens then the existing rule of university admission will be taken consideration in order of deciding the eligibility.

8. The seed number announced by the audience for each class will be documented for future audit of the selection process.
